

How to make your business CRA payments online

Online Banking Payments

Make a payment to the CRA through online banking, the same way you pay your phone or hydro bill.

- Sign in to your financial institution's online business banking service.
- Under "Add a payee," look for an option such as:
 - Federal – Corporation Tax Payments – TXINS
 - Federal – GST/HST Payment – GST-P (GST-P)
 - Federal Payroll Deductions – Regular/Quarterly – EMPTX – (PD7A)
 - Federal Payroll Deductions – Threshold 1 – EMPTX – (PD7A)
 - Federal Payroll Deductions – Threshold 2 – EMPTX – (PD7A)
 - Federal – Canada emergency wage subsidy repayment
 - Luxury Tax
 - Underused Housing Tax (UHT)
- Enter your 15 digit business number as your CRA account number.

You are responsible for any fees that may be charged by your financial institution.

Debit Card Payments Via 'My Payment'

Make a payment with your Visa® Debit, or Debit MasterCard®.

My Payment is an electronic payment service offered by the CRA that uses Visa® Debit, Debit MasterCard® for businesses to make payments directly to the CRA using their bank access cards. The CRA does not charge a fee for using the My Payment service. Credit Cards not accepted with this service.

To use My Payment you need a card with a Visa Debit logo or Debit MasterCard logo from a participating Canadian financial institution.

Before you start ask your financial institution about your daily or weekly transaction limit and any fees for making online payments. The CRA does not charge a fee for using this service.
